Dear James,

Boy, have I got a lot to say. Yes, I remember all the fun we had in Jr. High. If it hadn't been for you I don't think I could have made it. The parties and all that. Remember Donny Reids party. I was supposed to be with Donny, but I invited you. He was sure mad about that. We got pop all over us. That was some year. Well, always remember me as a very good friend, because I always will be.

God Luck & God Bless you.

Foreword

The 1965-1966 school year, the last year before Seaman District 5 becomes Unified District 345, was a memorable one for the Vikings. The senior class was the last class to attend Seaman for four years The new addition was completed, and new science lab facilities and language labs were installed. While the nation was involved in an escalating war in Southeast Asia and Batman was invading every home via the TV, school spirit prevailed at Seaman and many outstanding achievements were made in athletics, music, and debate.

DEPARTMENTS

Administration

SUPERINTENDENTS: Mr. Colaw, Mr. Pitts.

It is the goal of the Seaman Board of Education to provide the very best educational opportunities for the students of the Seaman District.

The superintendents are responsible for implementing this goal to the Seaman District as a whole. They guide the development of improved facilities, the maintenance of a high standard for the faculty, and the coordination of the curriculums of the high school and the junior high.

PRINCIPALS: Mr. Frederick, Mr. Lauffer.

The principals implement the Seaman educational goal on a more personal and individual basis. They are responsible for the planning and evaluating of the curriculum, the constant upgrading of instructional methods and teaching materials, and the provision of better services to help the students toward achieving greater potential.

Personnel

Mrs. Brady works as Mr. Colaw's secretary.

Mrs. Curry, Mrs. Hood, Mrs. Besser, and Mrs. Davis make the hot lunch program a success.

Stan and George keep the building shining.

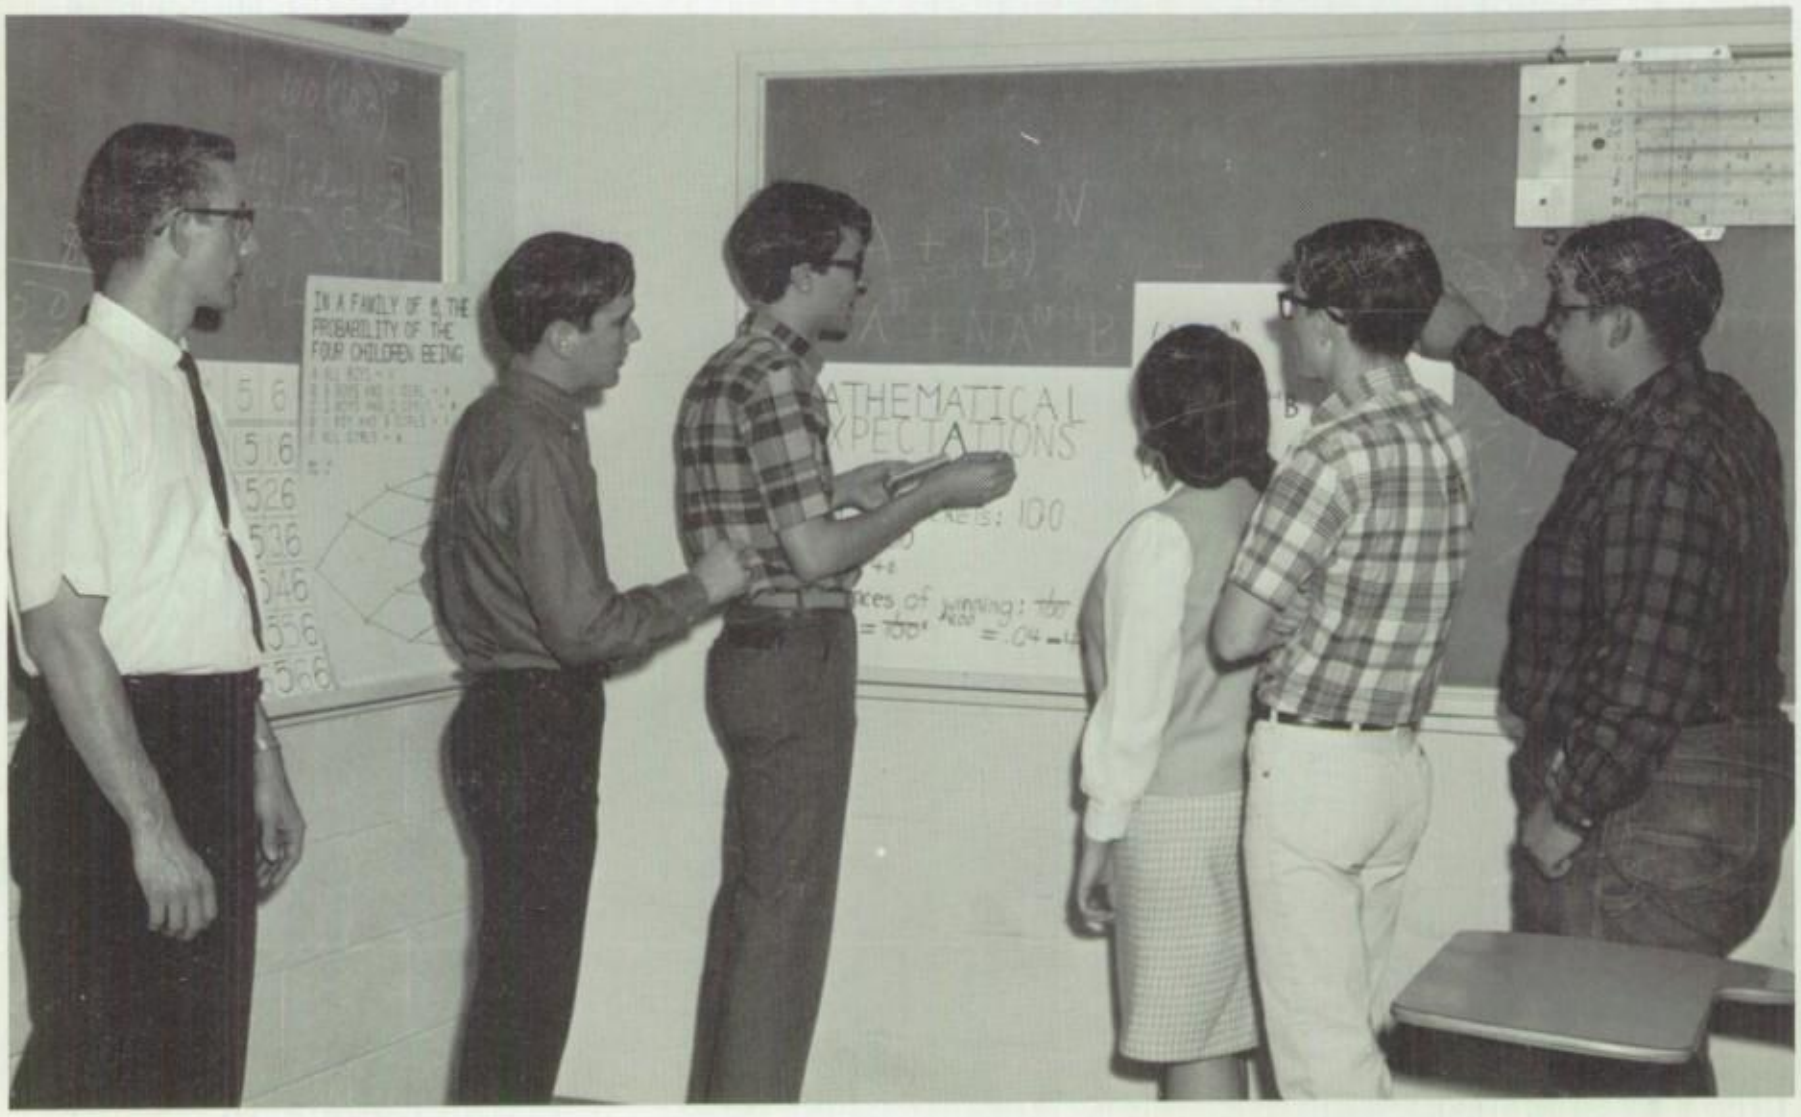
Mrs. Loss happily greets people calling the school.

Mrs. Shogren checks the morning roll. "Sarge" and Mr. Burks keep the buses in running condition.

Is playing with toys part of the new math program?

These students certainly take this course seriously.

Probabilities students prepare their T. V. demonstrations.



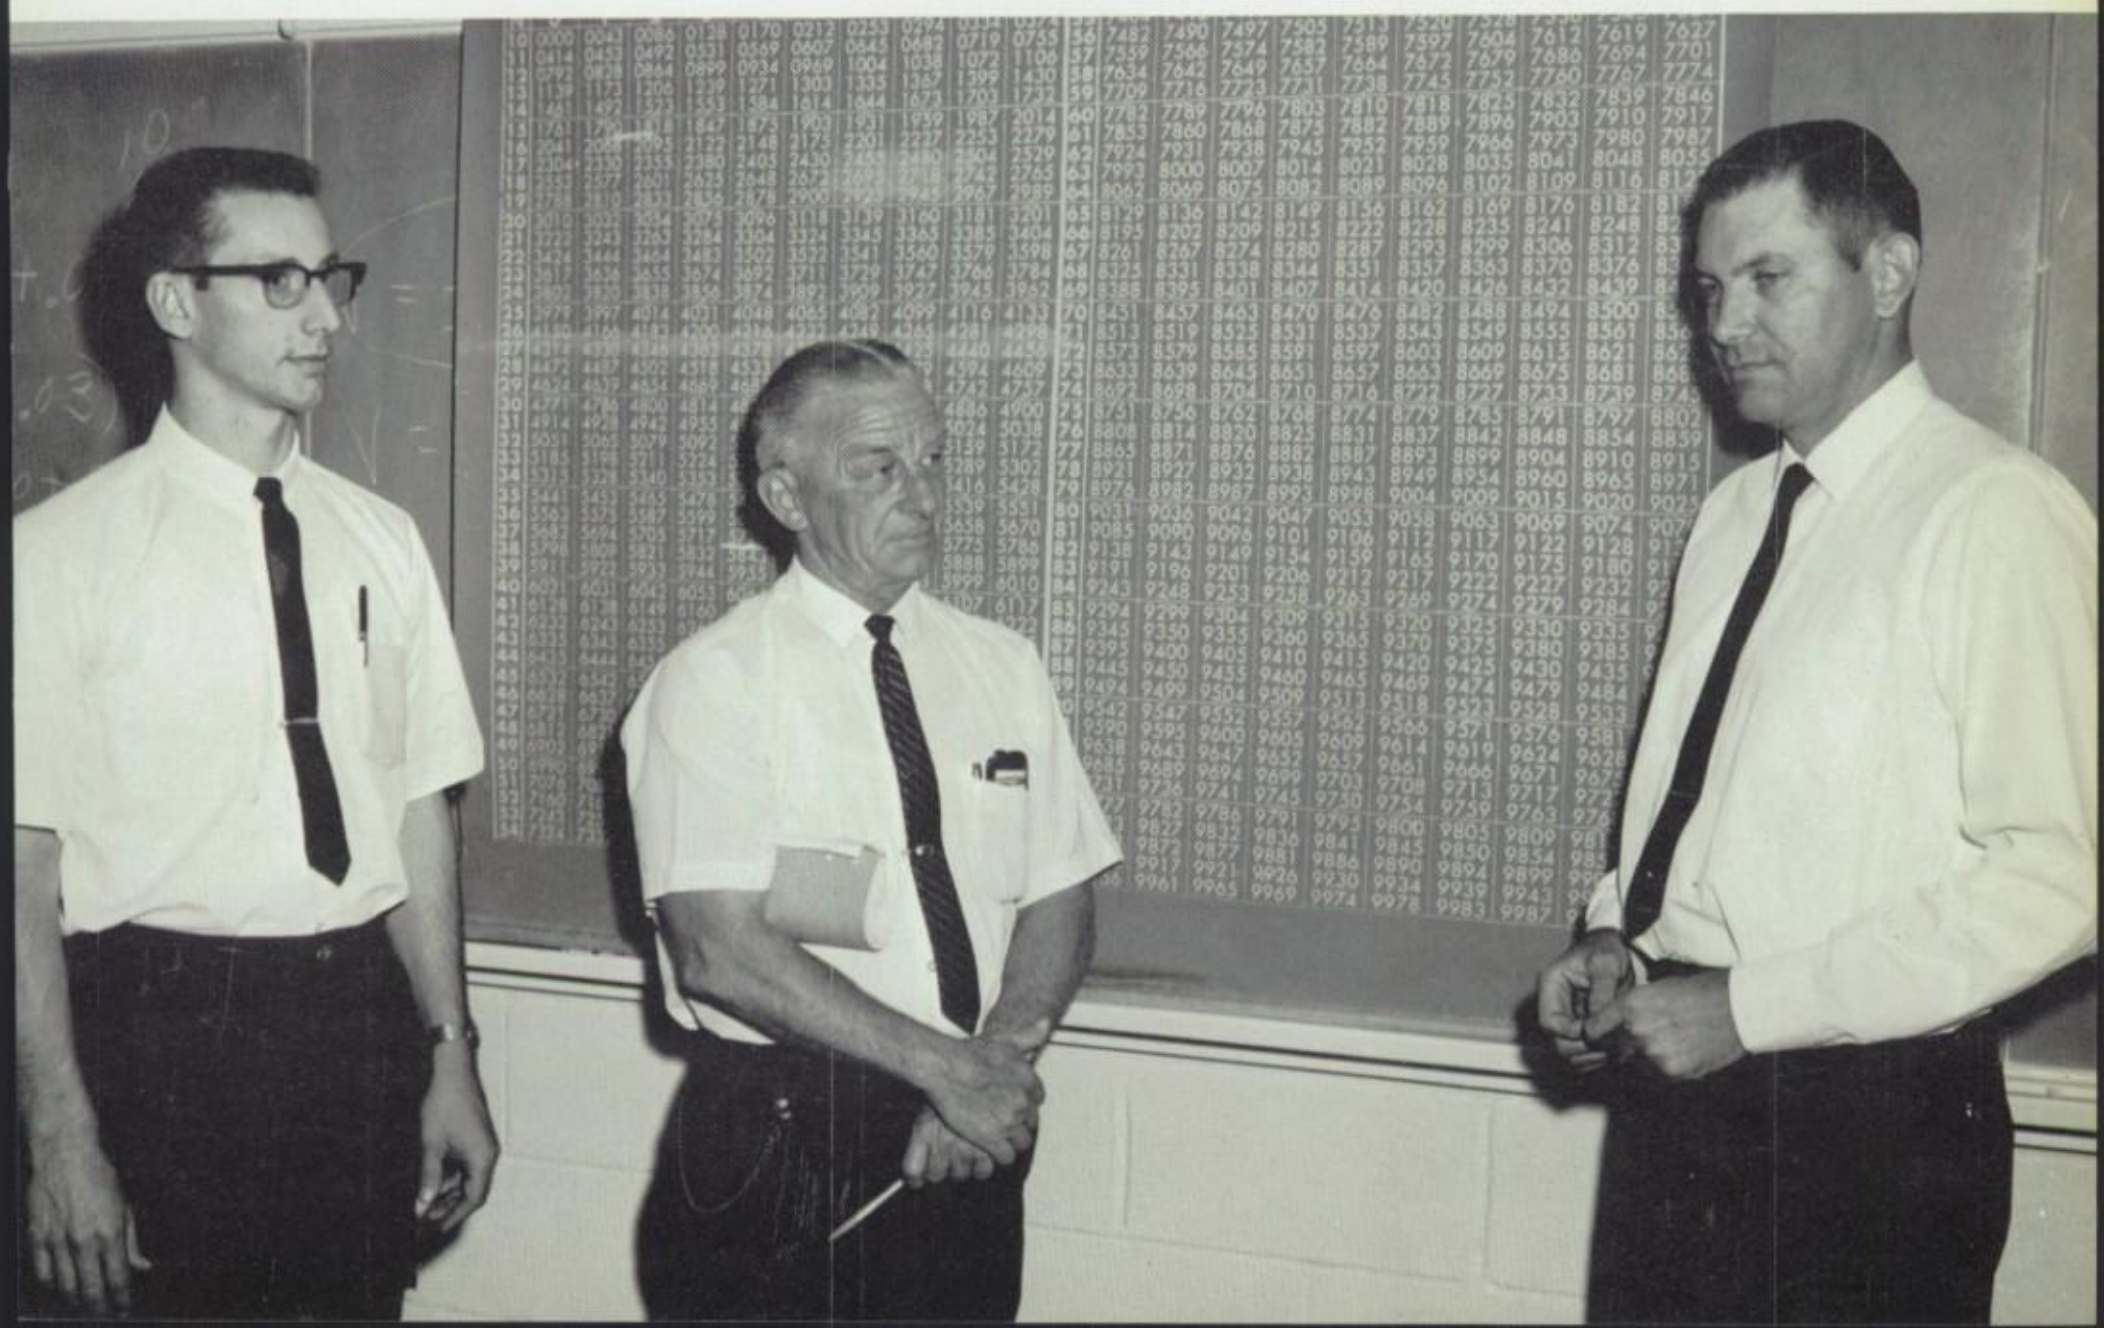
World Of Chance Is Explored Through Math

The chief goal of the mathematics department is to help students improve their power of reasoning and to gain a better understanding of mathematical concepts. Courses ranging from applied math and algebra to trigonometry and probabilities are offered. Each student is required to take one year of math, but many continue to explore areas as far as trigonometry and probabilities.

In applied math classes, students learn to apply the fundamentals of mathematics to everyday situations. Algebra I pupils discover the realm of equations and their evaluation, a basic step to higher math. Algebra II combines Algebra I and geometry with the use of the slide rule. The highest math course a Seaman student may take is trigonometry and probability. Trig pupils study angles and the principles of navigation, while probability students explore the world of chance through the use of coin tossing, card dealing, dice rolling and the use of various theorems.

Is that math you're studying, Don?

Math teachers: MR. NACHTIGALL, MR. BIERMAN, MR. JOHNSON.



If I could only reach the eye piece.

New Facilities Aid Science Students

This year new lecture and laboratory facilities were installed in the science department. These have provided science students with the opportunity to experience the basic lab procedures as well as to perform individual research. With the aid of newly purchased microscopes, biology students explored the world of microbiology and bacteriology. Physics students discovered the basic laws which govern the movement of matter while chemistry students examined the world of elements and compounds, their composition, nature, and uses. Such subjects as astronomy, geology, mineralogy and petrology were studied in modern earth science classes. The science teachers hope that with the aid of the new facilities science students will be encouraged to further explore the various fields of science.

Science teachers: MR. JOHNSON, MR. FREEL, MR. GLAZE, and MR. WILLIS.

Social Studies Department Encourages "Social Awareness"

Every year it becomes more and more important for future leaders to understand world affairs. Helping students gain this understanding is Seaman's social studies department. On May 8, nineteen government students attended County Government Day, and seven driver's education students attended the Governor's Traffic Safety Conference.

After weeks of preparation, twenty-four government students represented Seaman at the Little United Nations held at the KSTA building on March 30 and 31. Matters discussed were the Viet Nam question, the Rhodesian problem, the admittance of Red China, and disarmament. The delegation from Great Britian--Jim Van Orsdol, John Whiteside, and Berney Williams--were chosen to receive the first Adlai E. Stevenson Award for active participation in the Little United Nations.

Mr. Emrich gives a lecture on American history to an interested class.

Mr. Hrynewich presents the Adlai E. Stevenson Award to Berney Williams, Jim Van Orsdol, and John Whiteside.

Are you studying or just bored?

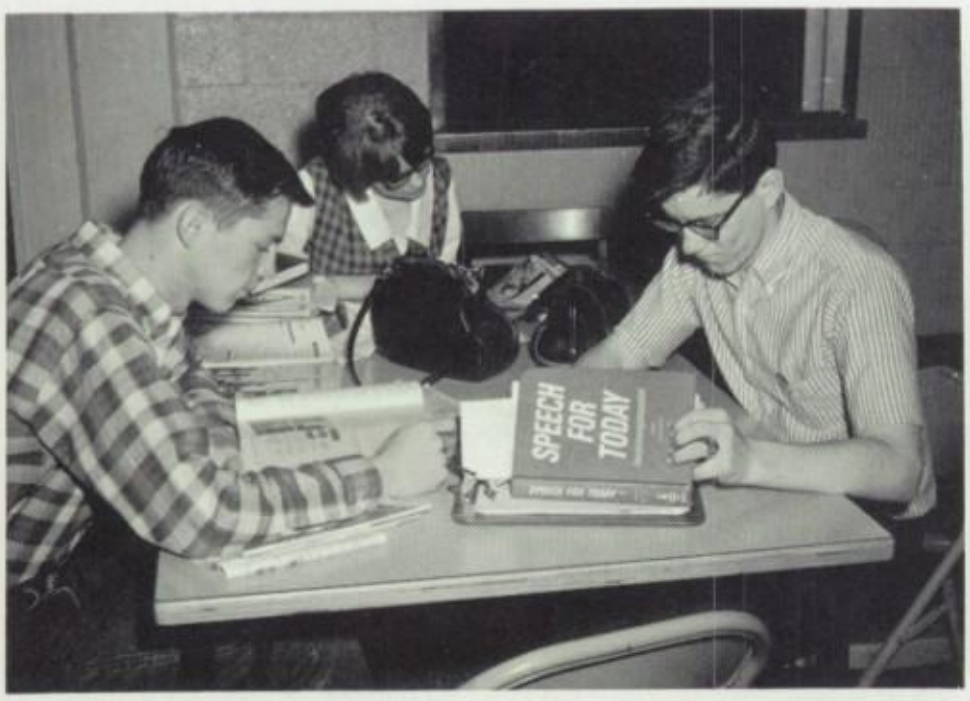
What's so funny, Mrs. Blaisdel?

New Techniques Aid Language Arts

The Language Arts Department, making use of many new techniques, helped English students broaden their background in literature and allowed them to try their hands at creative writing. Sixty students took part in college-prep courses where their introduction to English literature was augmented by detailed films about Shakespeare's HAMLET and MACBETH and Dickens' GREAT EXPECTATIONS. This year marked the end of the experimental accelerated English classes 91 & 92, but the remedial reading program so effectively conducted by Mr. Eichman will be continued. The speech class presented the play THE UGLY DUCKLING in a special theater in the round.

This time Madison Avenue has gone TOO FAR!

Don't close your book, Keith. The hour's not over.



The class listens attentively to Mr. Mount's lecture.

Mr. Eichman demonstrates the use of the reading machine.

Foreign

Buenos dias

In October, 1965, the department of foreign languages was proud to begin using a new language laboratory. With this scientifically designed and controlled environment for language learning it has been possible to program instructional material to fit individual needs and aptitudes.

En Octubre de 1965 el departamento de los lenguajes extranjeros tuvo mucho placer y orgullo en empezar a usar nuestro nuevo laboratorio para las clases que aprenden otros lenguajes. Con este medio ambiente cientificamente designado para el aprendizaje de otras idiomas, ha sido posible planificar materiales educacionales que se llevan bien con las necesidades y aptitudes de cada alumno.

Language

Now language students are able to participate fully in classroom drills and exercises with concentrated listening and pronunication practice and, consequently, are better able to talk and think in a foreign language with ease and speed. Trips made this year to art galleries, language departments of universities, movies, and restaurants, also helped give insight into the cultural background of countries that speak French and Spanish.

Maintenant les étudiants des langues étrangères peuvent parler. avec facilité. C'est possible maintenant à penser comme pense un francais.

French students learn through the help of flash cards.

Mrs. Hart gives a helpful hint for better sketching.

Art critics evaluate an oil painting.

Fine Arts Introduces Sculpture Design

Seaman's Art Department, under the supervision of Mrs. Hart, offers the student an opportunity to gain an awareness of art and its role in our environment.

First year students are given general art courses which acquaint them with art history. Courses on drawing basic shapes, elements of design, and the principles of art are also covered. This year, students were introduced to clay and plaster sculpturing. Abstract art was explored and mobiles of imaginative forms were produced through the student's creativity.

The advanced classes had an opportunity to work and experiment with new techniques in a particular field of their choice. At the end of the year, their works were gathered and displayed in individual exhibits.

Nona Ribordy adds finishing touches to a clay "Madonna."

No, Neil, those are plaster works.

Band Completes Busy Year

This year the marching band attended Emporia Band Day, K-State Band Day, Topeka parades, and the Atchison Halloween parade. The marching band also provided entertaining half-time shows for football games. For the basketball games, the band was divided into two pep bands. The twirlers and drum majorette performed during the half-times. The concert band presented a pop concert in November. In January, the band attended the Centennial League music clinic at Washburn Rural. In March, the concert band toured the grade schools in the area. On these tours, the German band provided the humorous portion of the concert. The music department presented the musical OLIVER in March. The pit band, made up of selected band members, did a fine job playing for the musical. In April, various ensembles and soloists entered the State Music Festival at Lawrence. Also during April, they presented the Spring Concert. For enjoyment, the band members went on a special trip to Kansas City to see the movie THE AGONY AND THE ECSTACY. In May, the music department had a picnic at Lake Shawnee. As its final performance, the band provided music for commencement.

Hi-Lites Entertain

The Hi-Lites stage band is outstanding in the Topeka area. The dance band consists of specially selected students from Seaman. Each year they play for other schools' homecomings, winter formals, proms, and various other school functions. This year the dance band provided the music for the National Grange Coronation at the Municipal Auditorium in November. The band has participated in clinics with Warren Covington and "Doc" Severinsen of the "Tonight Show". The clinics were held at the College of Emporia. In May, the dance band ended the year by having a special banquet as a reward for their time and effort throughout the school year.

Choral Department Presents Assemblies

The 1965-1966 Seaman Concert Choir composed of 32 junior and senior members, began its concert year with a concert at Northern Hills Junior High School and a performance at the Pop Concert on November 16. As in the past, the choir sponsored the Thanksgiving and Easter Assemblies for the student body. On December 21, the choir performed at the annual Christmas Vespers. In March, the choir members were involved in OLIVER, the traditional Broadway Show. In the spring, the choir closed its year with performances at the Spring Concert on May 13 and at the Baccalaureate and Commencement Services.

Students Prepare For Business World

This year the course Business English was established to develop the students knowledge of grammar essential in the business world. In typing classes the students learn the correct procedure for typing business letters and forms and also learn to type with speed and accuracy. This year the typing classes acquired 26 new electric typewriters, enabling the students to become proficient typists on both electric and manual typewriters.

Shorthand I acquaints a student with the Gregg system of shorthand and endeavors to bring the student's shorthand speed up to 80 words a minute by the end of the first year. Shorthand II attempts to develop an accurate dictation speed. The correct method of filing, writing application letters, and operating dictaphones were a few of the many units offered in office practice this year. The class also spent nine weeks acquainting the students with the basic principles of data processing. Business machines class develop the student's knowledge of the operation of basic machines used in business.

Business Teachers: MRS. WOODBURN, MR. BIERMAN, MR. BYRNE, MR. PIERCE

Learning to use the adding machine is part of the business machine course.

Shorthand dictation isn't really hard.

Typing on the new electric machines is fun.

Physical education teachers: MR. MOSLEY, MISS GLICK, and MR. GLAZE.

Physical Education Strives For Physical Fitness

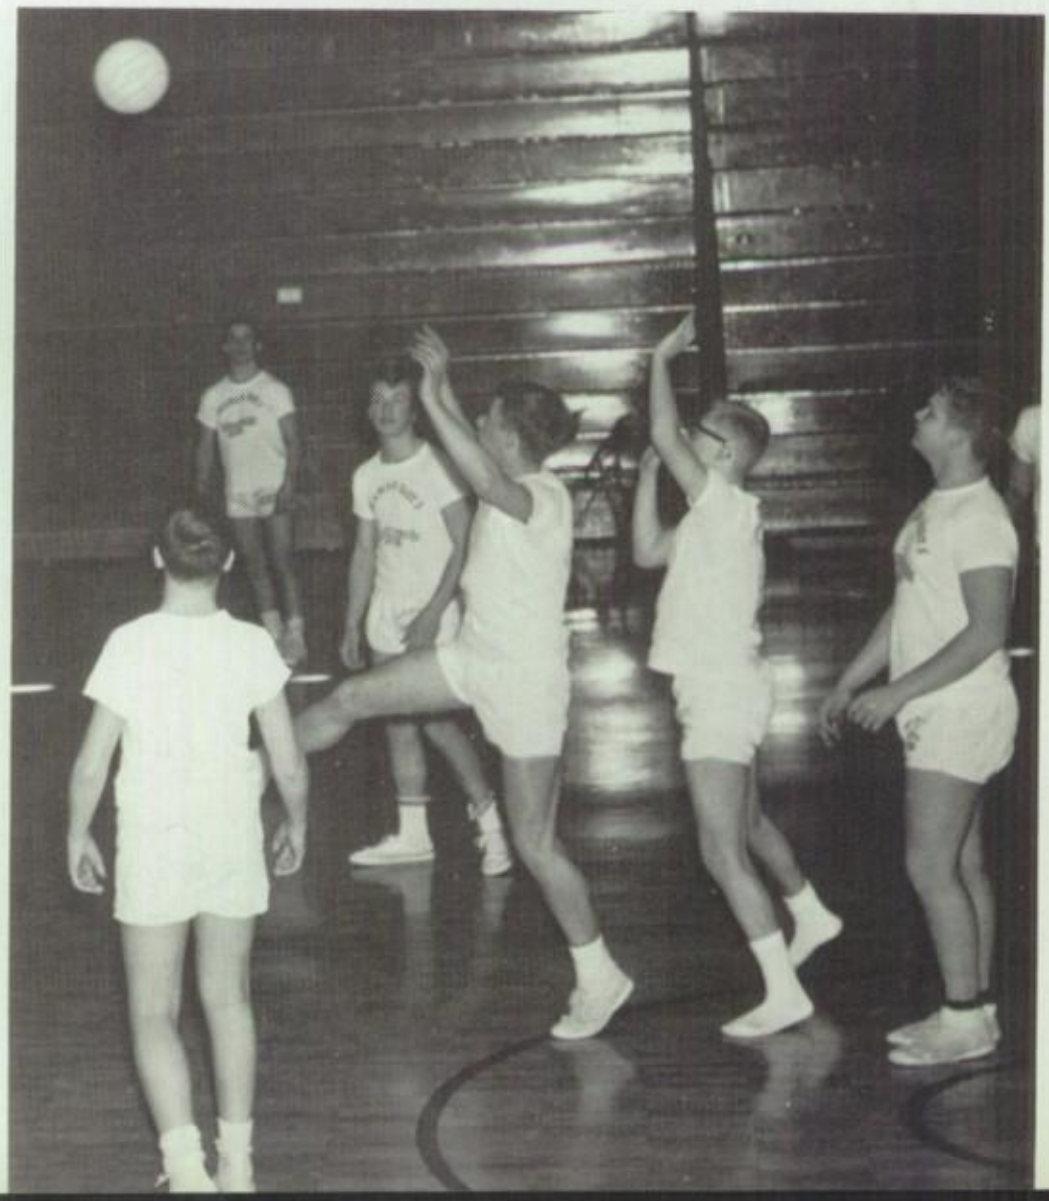
A physically fit American public, one of the chief goals of the late President John F. Kennedy, is being aided by the strenuous physical education classes at Seaman. Volleyball, basketball, speedball, tumbling, gymnastic exercises, and many other athletic feats were pursued each day by the physical education students.

During the first semester, a frivolous group of boys in sixth hour could be seen ganging up on Mr. Glaze in a wrestling match. Although the boys made a valiant effort, they never seemed able to defeat their wiry opponent. In Mr. Mosley's classes, much time was spent in weight lifting.

Supervising the girls while they are striving for physical fitness is Miss Glick. The girls took part in many of the same activities as the boys with the addition of archery and softball.

Oh, my aching head!

See the ball? Hit the ball.



T & I Provides Variety Of Opportunities

Under the expert guidance of Mr. Lundgrin, the Trade and Industry students benefitted from an activity-filled year. The class toured industrial plants in Topeka and Kansas City, and attended several conferences, contests, and conventions. Margaret Wenger and George Jack represented Seaman at the Fall Delegate Assembly of the Business Education Clubs of Kansas for the T&I Division. George Jack was elected the Vice-President of B.E.C.K. at this convention. At the B.E.C.K. State Conference, Margaret was elected the Vice-President of the Kansas Association of Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. The Seaman delegation presented a skit on parliamentary procedure at the Leadership Conference of the Flint Hills Area Vocational Technical School of Emporia. The Third Annual Employee-Employer Banquet of the Seaman T&I Club was held April 21, 1966.

Mr. Jernberg's special education class

Boys Do Women's Work

The Seaman carpentry class, in its fourth year of operation, again built a medium-priced, three bedroom, ranch style home. The house, located on Westbrook Drive, was displayed at an open house held May 14 and 15. The girls of the home economics classes chose the color scheme for the interior. This was the first year for the boy's home economics class. The boys worked diligently to master the finer points of sewing when making denim aprons and prepared an entire meal to demonstrate their culinary skills. Many Vikings learned the basics of entomology, horticulture, livestock raising, and shop in vocational agriculture classes. The more advanced classes studied crop production, soil conservation and farm management.

Counselors Provide Guidance

Guidance Counselor Margaret Epps assists Seaman students by helping them prepare a school curriculum to meet college requirements or to help them develop occupational skills. It is her responsibility to provide a complete occupational reference file and to compile a cumulative folder for each student. Working with Mrs. Epps in personal, student and parental counseling is the school psychologist, Don Hawks. Mr. Hawks supervises the educational and vocational testing and directs the special education classes at Seaman. Joining the counseling staff this year was Nancy Peterson. Mrs. Peterson tested students' speaking and hearing ability and conducted therapy concerning any defects in the senses.

Yearbook Records Activities

Each year the yearbook staff strives to produce a yearbook which will provide memories of the year's activities for Seaman students and faculty members. The 1966 staff spent much time in the research of past yearbooks of Seaman and other schools, gaining valuable information about yearbook structure and design. The staff journeyed to the Yearbook Conference held at Kansas State University on October 5, to gather new ideas for compiling a yearbook. To give Seaman students and alumni the opportunity to exchange autographs, the class sponsored the annual Yearbook Varsity on September 24. Mrs. Carolyn Hoad, the sponsor, advised the staff on the essentials involved in creating a yearbook which provides an accurate and complete picture of school life at Seaman.

Council Projects Highlight Year

The Seaman Student Advisory Council is constantly concerned with fulfilling certain goals. These goals are the maintenance of rapport between students and teachers and the asserting of above-average school behavior.

Among projects undertaken by the council during the year were a carnival, clothing drive, student exchanges with other city high schools, lyceums, and the sponsoring of slacks and sweatshirt days. In addition, the annual winter formal, "Winter Paradise," and "Queen of Courts" dances were sponsored by the council.

Cheerleaders Promote School Spirit

The enthusiasm, school spirit, and group co-operation shown by the varsity and "B" team cheerleaders were a major factor of Seaman sportsmanship. Through the introduction of competive assemblies and new cheers, an increase in school spirit was achieved.

Miss Glick, cheerleading sponsor, accompanied the varsity cheerleaders to Dallas, Texas, where they received high competition ratings at the Southern Methodist University Cheerleading Clinic. The "B" team cheerleaders also received high ratings at the clinic held at Lake Shawnee in Topeka.

Pep Club Moves Forward

This proved to be a year of much accomplishment for the Pep Club. The club's many activities and projects included selling ribbons and calendars, formations at all home football games, revision of the club bylaws and a booth at the school carnival. New uniforms were chosen for the entire club and new features were added to the traditional pep club formation at the homecoming game this year. Joining Miss Marcia Glick as a club sponsor was Mrs. Carol Rhea. School spirit prevailed during both football and basketball seasons. The Pep Club remained equally enthusiastic through victory as well as defeat.

Book Club Adopts New Mascot

Although the term "bookworm" often has a negative connotation, twenty Seaman students have adopted it as the new name for their reading club. The new name and the club emblem, a bespeckled, intellectual-appearing worm, were chosen by club members.

The purpose of the club is to stimulate students in reading more worthwhile literature. At the beginning of the year, the four books--LORD JIM, A RAISIN IN THE SUN, LORNA DOONE, and CYRANO DE BERGERAC--were chosen to be read during the year. Besides reading and discussing these books, the club also attended two plays, On December 4, the group attended THE TAMING OF THE SHREW at KU. About twelve Bookworms attended A RAISIN IN THE SUN presented by the Topeka Civic Theatre on February 24. Club meetings were not always spent discussing books, however. Dale Easton, director of the Topeka Civic Theatre, spoke on play production at one gathering.

Los Vikingos Españoles

Hace cuatro anos que el club, Los Vikingos Espanoles, empieza. Durante este tiempo los miembros han tenido un interes en el idioma castellano y en la cultura de las personas que hablan español.

During the year the Spanish Club was very busy scheduling and participating in many activities. Among these were the fourth Annual Foreign Language Banquet (in cooperation with the French Club), two trips to Kansas City to see the motion pictures "SOUND OF MUSIC" and "DOCTOR ZHIVAGO" and to eat dinner at Casa de Montes. The girl members of Spanish Club participated in a "Powder Puff" basketball game. Some of the members took part in the Cervantes Day ceremonies at the University of Kansas at Lawrence. For the members who like to eat spanish food there was a trip to La Siesta for lunch.

To complete the year for the Spanish Club, the Sophomore and Junior members organized a picnic in honor of the Seniors.

Busy Year For

French Club

This proved to be one of the most active years for the French Club. In October, the play THE SKELETON WALKS was presented by the members. The club then participated in the annual language banquet held December 8. They presented a skit depicting a typical Parisian night club including a flirtatious can-can troupe. Hosts carved ducks, and hostesses served the dinner for a French candlelight Christmas dinner. The year was brought to an end with the annual banquet held May 5 to honor the senior members of the club.

Vi-Queens Adopt Child

The Vi-Queens Club, like the Viking Club, is a service organization. Its purpose is to provide Seaman girls with social activities while encouraging them to be of service to their communities. As this year's major project, the club "adopted" an orphaned Korean girl. This was done by donating the money necessary to keep the child for one year. At Easter time Reverend Iske gave a talk on "The Meaning of Easter." Other meetings featured demonstrations on hair styling and sand painting. The annual Heart Sister Week was held during the week before Valentine's Day. At the regular February meeting a gift exchange was conducted with gifts ranging from stuffed animals to a live hamster. As a finale, a senior farewell party was held and each senior girl was given a silver charm engraved with the words "Vi-Queen '66."

Viking Club Alias Seaman Santa Claus

The Viking Club, one of Seaman's most prosperous and beneficial clubs, continued rendering school services and gifts. This year's club had a total of 109 boys under the supervision of Dan Emrich. The members participated in the various sports of touch football, basketball, and softball during the year. The services and gifts to the school included: two tape recorders, a polaroid camera, an overhead projector, two transistor radios for the office, the Viking sign on the press box, the basketball schedule in the gym, a band for Christmas formal, a band for the two varsities, a trip for the officers and cheerleaders to Kansas City, a coffee pot for the teachers lounge and one for the press box, and the treating of basketball and football players after the games.

Clipper Staff Publishes Award Winning Stories

This year the Seaman Clipper published sixteen issues with a staff of nine members. The staff members learned more about the techniques of journalism when they attended journalism conferences at K-State and K.U. in the fall.

The Clipper was the only school paper in Kansas to win three first place awards in the 46th Annual High School Newspaper Contest conducted by the William Allen White School of Journalism at K.U. Dan Lauck won first in Sports News Story and first in Sports Column. "The winning sports column was chosen because of its originality, high interest appeal to high school students, and its pathos." Kathi Morris's retail advertising campaign, consisting of a series of advertising won first place in the retail advertising division. Gregg Sackrider received an honorable mention for news pictures.

FHA Ends Productive Year With Slumber Party.

During this past year two Seamanites received Future Homemakers State Degrees, and one was installed as District Historian. These three girls and their mothers attended a special dinner after the morning session of the state meeting held in Topeka. Following the afternoon session, several of the girls attended a tea held at the Governor's mansion. At the District FHA meeting, girls of the Seaman chapter presented a skit about individuality and also participated in the style show. Three Seaman members attended the FHA camp held at Goddard. The Club organized a watermelon "feed" for the incoming sophomore members during the summer and was in charge of stage decorations for homecoming. A special night meeting featuring a tea for the members and their mothers was held in November. The final meeting of the year was a slumber party for senior farewell and the installation of new officers.

In October, the officers attended the National FFA Convention in Kansas City. The club finished first at the District Horticulture Contest. F.T.A. Encourages Interest In Teaching

In its second year of existence, the Future Teachers of America grew from a small group of 18 members to an organization of 32 students who are truly interested in the teaching profession. Led by sponsors, Mrs. Rama Hart and Mr. Charles Sims, the club became an active part of Seaman. Projects included collecting food and money for a needy family at Thanksgiving, helping teachers grade papers, and arranging bulletin board displays. Highlights of the year's activities were listening to Mr. Colaw speak on the opportunities in the educational field, watching a film on education, and establishing a point system enabling members to earn an F. T. A. pin by helping teachers.

Numerous Honors Bestowed Upon N.F.L. Members

Seaman's chapter of the National Forensic League, a nation wide society of high school speakers, was again active in both local and state activities. The NFL chapter hosted the Seaman Invitational Debate Tournament and the Class AA District Speech and Drama Festival.

At the NFL Speech Tournament, Jim Van Orsdol qualified to compete in the National Speech Tournament by winning first place in extemporaneous speech but was kept from competing by a KSHSAA rule against national competition.

Larry Gregg, Jim Van Orsdol, and Berney Williams earned the highest degree of honor and NFL emblems jeweled with double rubies through their work in speech.

Small Group Does Big Job

Under the direction of their new coach, Mrs. Angeletti, the Viking debaters with one of the smallest squads in Seaman's history, completed a successful year of competition with schools throughout the state. The novice team of Diana Kingman and Kathy McIver won third place in the Buhler High Novice Tournament while the four speaker team of Larry Gregg, Jim Van Orsdol, Allan Shorthill, and Berney Williams were capturing first place at Hoisington. At district, Seaman's four man team tied for fourth place behind last year's state champions and this year's second place finisher.

In individual speech competition, the Viking rhetors again compiled an excellent record. At the Emporia Invitational, Larry Gregg captured the title for best orator, and Jim Van Orsdol won the trophy for best extemporaneous speaker. After capturing "I" ratings at the District Speech Festival held at Seaman, Berney Williams and Jim Van Orsdol won gold medals at the State Speech contest for their extemporaneous speaking.

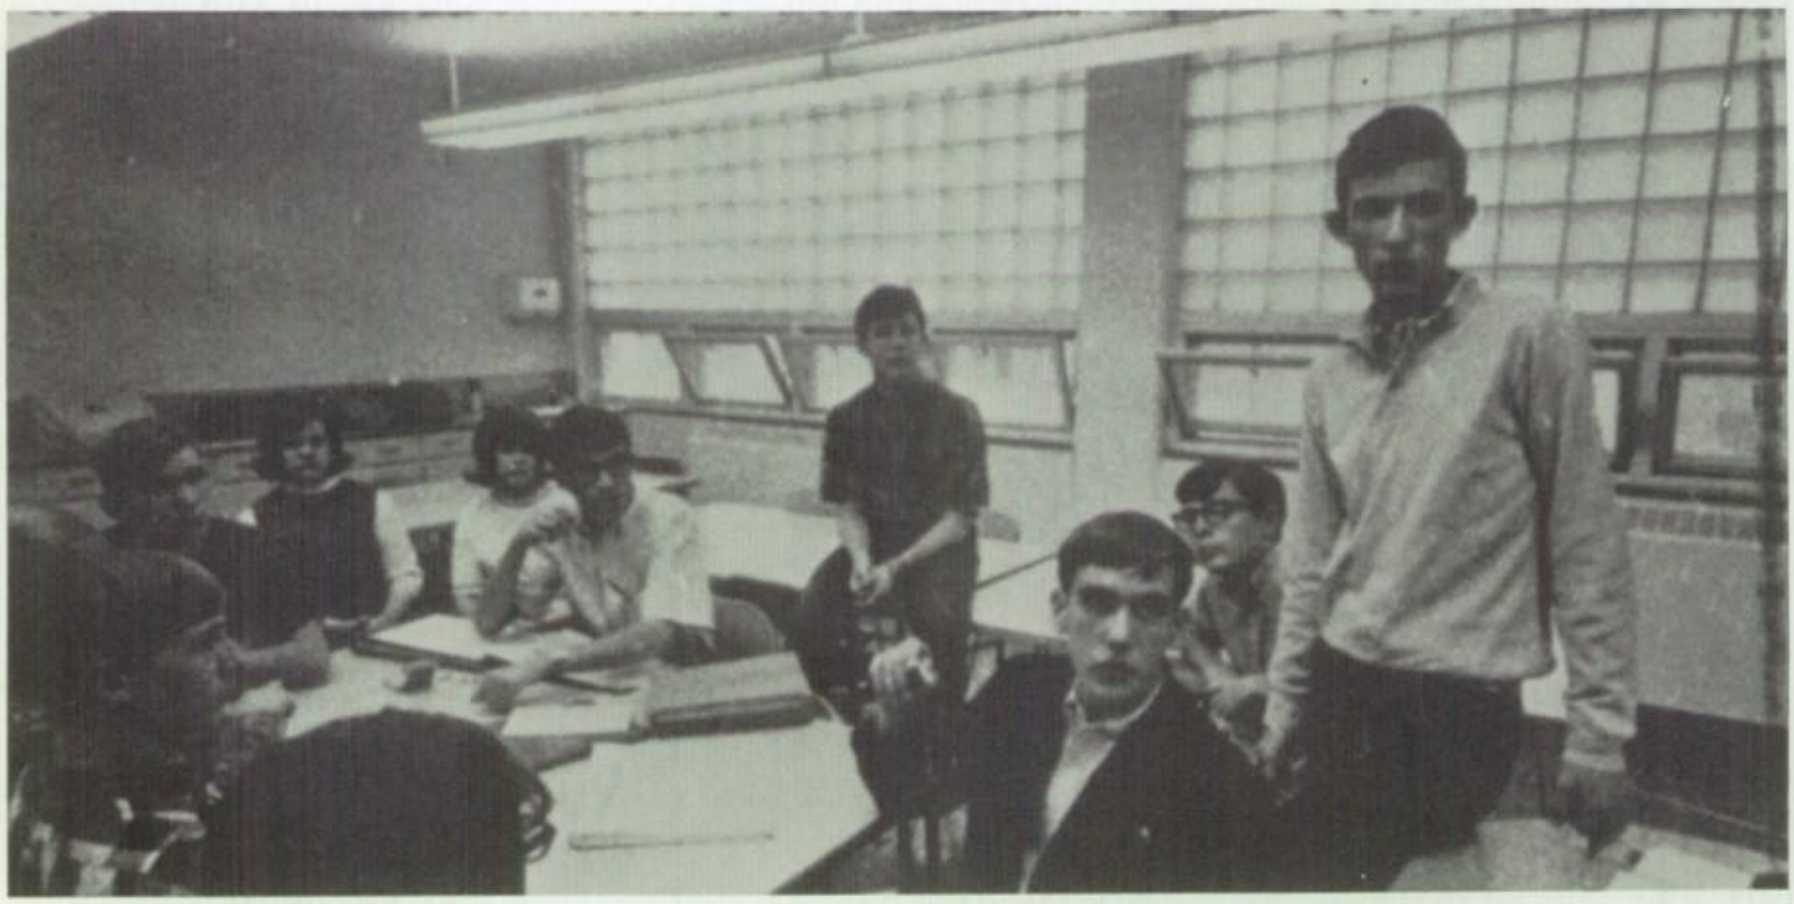
Investors Dissolve Corporation

The Viking Investors, after learning a great deal about investing, decided to dissolve the club in the face of large corporate losses. This decision was largely affected by the difficulty of finding new members to purchase the graduating seniors' stock and by low club morale caused by the worst dip in the market since the Kennedy assassination. The last formal business of the organization was the selling of all private holdings in the corporation to a group of three senior members who hoped to regain some of the losses they incurred over the last four years by retaining the corporation's public holdings until the stock values increased.



Investors debate the future of the club.

Banking Prepares Students For World Of Economics

The Seaman Bank, the only high school bank in the nation operated by students, successfully completed its thirty-eighth year of operation. The bank provides regular banking facilities for students, faculty, and organizations within the school.

This year thirteen students, under the supervision of Mrs. Dorothy Woodburn, undertook the responsibilities of running the bank. Every student had an opportunity to learn the various duties involved in banking.

As a finale to a successful year, the bank members held their annual banquet at Hart's Restaurant.

The purpose of the Science Club is to provide the opportunity for informal exploration of the various scientific fields for interested students. Seaman Mathematicians Honored By National Society

The importance of high grades in all subjects, a future through mathematics, and an understanding of new ideas is stressed by the Math Club. Fifteen outstanding members of the Seaman Math Club were accepted by Mu Alpha Theta, a national high school and junior college mathematic honor society.

Among the various activities of the year was a banquet with architect Orville Rice as guest speaker. The Math Club sold troll dolls to raise money for the purchase of new school supply machines. At one of the meetings Mrs. Lucille Asher discussed the various Math codes. Dr. Linquist of the Mechanical Engineering Dept. of KU was guest speaker at the final meeting.

Art Club Beautifies Seaman

The Art Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Hart, provided many works of art to help beautify Seaman throughout the year. Before each vacation, the Art Club created decorations in celebration of the coming holiday. These decorations not only gave the school beauty but also gave the students the satisfaction of knowing that they helped make the holiday more meaningful to themselves and other students.

During the year the Art Club held weekly meetings for discussion of such topics as the club picnic, the club booth at the SAC carnival and several field trips. Climaxing the year was the Art Club picnic held at Shawnee Lake. The Art Club members and their guests enjoyed themselves immensely despite the water guns.

Cross Country Captures Centennial Championship

The Seaman cross country team had one of its most successful seasons since it was organized into interscholastic competition in 1959. The Viking harriers, with an experienced squad of juniors and seniors, won the Centennial League Cross Country Championship by defeating its closest opponent by 4 points. This squad was led by the home course record holder, Karl Garner, who broke the Seaman record with a time of 11:06. The team's head mentor, Coach Tom Carlson, did an outstanding job in his first year at this post.

Vikes Display Tough Defense

The Seaman Vikings, under the leadership of new Coach Bill Mosley, had their most successful season since the Centennial League was formed in 1961. After a valiant effort to capture first place, the Vikes finished in a tight three-way tie for second. The team's loss to Highland Park by one touchdown was the difference between a tie for first and second place. The Vikes ended this exciting season with a 5-3-1 record.

In commenting on this year's squad Coach Mosley said, "This year's team was led by a fine group of young seniors who were willing to pay the price for a successful football team. Attitude and team spirit such as this will help them go a long way."

Shooting Sparks Vikes To A Successful Season

The Viking roundballers shot their way to one of the most successful seasons that Seaman basketball has enjoyed since entering the Centennial League. Finishing third in a league that sent three teams to state tournaments, the Vikings held an impressive 10-7 record against this high calibre competition.

The Vikings, led by all-stater John Johnson, was the only team to twice defeat state tourney entry Leavenworth. By winning these two ball games and numerous other crucial games, the squad was in contention for first place until the final game of the season.

The regional tournament, one of the most evenly matched in recent years, found Seaman matched with always powerful Topeka High. Aided by a spurting offensive show, the Vikings made numerous comebacks but could not surpass the upset-minded Trojans.

Coach Carlson explained at the end of the season that all the team lacked was a tall man, and also that the future looked promising because the squad was returning two sophomore starters.

Gymnastics Charts Varied Season

Girls' gymnastics, the only girl's competitive sport at Seaman, completed its third full year of competition. The squad participated in six meets, but failed to score any wins. Five girls lettered, and four of these will be returning next year. Girls lettering in gymnastics this year were Karen Lawrence, Koren Garner, Betty Brandenburgh, Janet Garton and Shirley Serene.

This year proved very successful for the boys' gymnastics team. The team captured 2nd place in the city, 3rd in the league, and 7th in the state. Karl Garner placed 1st in tumbling, 1st in long horse and 2nd in free exc. in the city meet. Gregg Foster placed 1st on the high bar and 2nd all-round in the city meet. Coach Glaze expressed regret at losing many senior members of the squad but felt those previous squad members returning show great potential.

Vikes 2nd In League

The Seaman wrestling squad, ably coached by Don Hoch, completed another successful year on the mats. Along with the fine showing in invitational tournaments the squad had a dual meet record of 4-4. The team finished third at the perennially power-packed Clay Center Invitational and impressively grappled their way to second in the first annual Centennial League Tournament.

The future was looking very bright when at the district tourney five Seamanites qualified for the Regionals, but due to injury and illness, only 120 lb. Senior Bob Koch was able to qualify for the State Tournament at Hutchinson. Koch represented Seaman well by attaining fourth in the state.

At the close of the season, Coach Hoch offered a line for the future wrestlers, "Be aggressive and go for the fall."

Golfers Provide Stiff Competition

Seaman golfers, finishing high in league standings, gave a close race to the great Leavenworth, but could not quite overcome them. The squad finished third in the Centennial League meet with a four man score of 335. Jack Skinner, Dallas Beach, Jim Redmon, Dan Lauck, and team medalist Larry Gregg comprised the five man team for most of the season. This fine talent, under the supervision of Coach Bryne, gave golf the best team that has been in Seaman since the sport was begun here.

Tennis Squad Recovers From Slow Start

The tennis team, under the guidance of first-year tennis coach Ray Glaze, finished the highest in the league since the sport was undertaken at Seaman. After a slow start of losing their first four dual meets, the squad won their three final meets. Following a successful dual-meet season, the team finished fourth in the league tourney. Glaze remarked that the future looked very bright with twenty-three of the twenty-five members returning.

Vikes Excel In Relays

The track team, much improved over the past few years, finished fifth in the strong Centennial League. With some experienced seniors and talented underclassmen the squad made excellent showings at all track meets. Two school records were broken at the league meet--the mile run and mile relay. Duane Tenpenny ran a 4:42.3 mile to achieve the new record, and the relay team combined for a time of 3:33.5. The Vikings had thirteen men qualify for the regional meet.

Vikes All-Sports Champs

The Seaman Vikings attained high prestige in the Centennial League by winning the all-sports contest. Although they won only the cross-country title, the Vikes finished no lower than 5th in any other sport.

New Stadium Dedicated

The new Chuck Logan Field was dedicated on November 3, 1966, in half-time ceremonies at the Seaman-Highland Park football game. The dedication was made in appreciation of Mr. Logan's impressive records in the areas of administration and athletics. He was principal of Seaman from 1931 to 1960. He also held the position of football coach from 1920 to 1939. During these years the Vikings' record was 139 wins, 37 losses, and 11 ties. A national record was established when the Vikings played 61 consecutive games without a defeat. Coach Logan was honored by the presence of a large percentage of his former football players at the ceremonies.

During the 1965-'66 school year Frank Sinatra had a hit song that we consider fitting to describe the events at Seaman. Its title is, "It was a very good year." We hope that these recollections and our reflections will help sustain your memories of this time.

January 28: The Seaman roundballers scored a memorable upset in league competition when they beat Leavenworth, who were ranking 6th in the state, 59-56 on their own court. The Vikes accomplished this phenomonal feat by stalling the entire fourth quarter and shooting from the field only once.

February 5: The gymnasts placed 3rd in the Centennial League tournament.

February 5: While the gymnasts were competing in the League Tournament at Lawrence and the wrestlers were at the District Tournament at Topeka High, Rosemary Cuevas was crowned Queen of Courts and reigned over the Washburn Rural game and the dance afterward.

February 7: The Viking gymnasts missed the all city championship by one-hundredth of a point in the city tournament. Karl Garner captured individual championship in tumbling and the long horse, and Gregg Foster won the high bar championship.

February 11, 12: The five Seaman wrestlers who had previously qualified met disappointment and defeat at the regional tournament at Ark City where only Bob Koch placed high enough to progress to the state tourney. Sickness kept little Jack Skinner, and hospitalization with an injured knee kept Richard McGranahan from advancing to the state. Many coaches had these boys picked as probable state champs.

February 14: Vi-Queen Heart Sister Week ended with a gift exchange. Gifts ranged from stuffed animals to live hamsters.

February 18, 19: Karl Garner, Richard Andres, Wayne Minert, and Gregg Foster competed in the State Gymnastics Tournament and placed seventh as a team. Eldon Puett was kept from competing by a broken foot suffered during practice.

Feburary 25: When Leavenworth came to Seaman looking for vengance of their previous defeat, the Vikes again beat them in the most exciting basketball game of the year. Two points behind as the clock ticked off the last second, John Johnson pumped a backboard shot into the basket from the half-court line to put the game into overtime at 78-78. During the overtime the lead see-sawed back and forth, but the final tally was 87-86, and Seaman was victorious a second time over the Leavenworth dunkers.

Those from Seaman who attended were Linda Elkin, Linda Foust, Larry Gregg, Steve Hildman, Shirley Hollenbeck, Nancy Scheetz, and Berney Williams.

February 28: Delegates from Seaman's T & I Club attended the state convention; and Margaret Wenger was elected Vice-President of the Kansas Chapter of Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, a newly organized youth group for vocational students. Her election entitles her to attend the national convention to be held in June, 1966, in Little Rock, Arkansas.

March 11, 12 OLIVER was the title of the annual broadway show presented at Northern Hills Junior High School by the music department. It was enjoyed by all who attended.

April 6: The Topeka Chamber of Commerce honored Topeka Schools' senior lettermen at a banquet, held in the basement of the Municipal Auditorium. The speaker was Paul Anderson, the strongest man in the world, who provided a thought provoking speech while also entertaining everyone by driving an eight penny spike through two one-inch boards with his hand, protected only by a folded handerchief, and by lifting a table with eight men sitting on it.

April 16: Everyone who attended the SAC Carnival enjoyed seeing Mr. Lauffer, Mr. Pierce, and Mr. Glaze get dunked in the waterdrop.

April 23: "Evening in Paris" was the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom given by the junior class. Carl Johnson's band provided music and sophomore girls served refreshments.

April 25: The Emporia High School chorale presented a concert for the student body.

April 29: The Spring Band Concert was held in the school gymnasium.

April 29: The tennis boys competed in the league tennis meet and placed fourth.

April 29: While the tennis boys were fighting to gain fourth place in the league meet, the golfers were stroking their way to a first place trophy at the Holton Sand Greens Invitational Tournament.

May 6: Competing in the League meet, Junior Duane Tenpenny broke the mile run record by scooting to a 4:42.3 timing and the mile relay team of Marty Garren, Terry Nolte, Rocky Frey, and Sonny Cutright set a new record of 3:47.5.

May 9: The new addition was displayed to parents at the open house.

May 20: Approximately 120 water-pistol-packing and pre-sneak-party-worn seniors left Seaman for Oklahoma City at 6:00 a.m. via Continental Trailways buses. After a harrowing journey, they arrived at Frontier City and spent the next two hours soaking each other with H_2O and eating lunch (the rides were less than exciting). At two o'clock they left for the cowboy Hall of Fame and spent an hour viewing, with mixed emotions, cowboy relics and artifacts of our "Western heritage." Next stop on the tour was the Oklahoma City Zoo, credited with being among the ten largest zoos in the world. The guided tour was fun. "On your left we have zebra, or a jack-ass with stripes." The Viking big-game hunters suffered the confiscation of their weapons, and the mob left for downtown Oklahoma City. The oil wells on the Capitol lawn were interesting, and the bus driver's brother-in-law built the one on the left. The highlight of the trip was fabulous Wedgewood Village Amusement Park, where the seniors could ride everything, from the third largest roller-coaster to a merry-go-round, for only a dollar. They also played goofy-golf and stumbled through the fun house until ten o'clock and then started the long trip home. At 4:00 a.m. Saturday morning they arrived back home bushed, but in agreement that this year's sneak was a success.

May 22: Baccalaureate services were held for the seniors in the Seaman gym.

May 23: "The Road Not Taken" was the title of the commencement address given by Dr. Robert P. Cobb at a full Municipal Auditorium. After the address, 175 seniors received diplomas or certificates of attendance. Of the 175, 73 were on the B-Honor roll all four years.

May 27: The last day of school!!! Awards were presented at the annual awards assembly and classes were shortened to three minutes each, just long enough for students to get their grade cards.

Jim,
It's really been a blast working and going to school with you these last years.
I know I will never forget you or all your crazy ways. You are really a blast to know. Buckle down and you'll get exactly what you want.
Best wishes
you
Sue

Jim,
Remember Rochester when we went together for so long? We sure had fun. I'm glad we have retogether. You're a great guy and have looks and personality to match. Best of luck always.

Love,
Sherri

Jim,

Well, whether you know it or not, you were the first boy I had a mad crush on when I first moved here in the 8th Grade. Of course, those were the good ole days! We sure had some funny times and I hope we have many more. Best of luck always to a real swell guy. Never change and keep smiling! OK?

Love ya,
Vickie Campbell
